

January 6, 1983

LB 85-88

approved. Now as far as we know we have all the bills in that you wanted to be introduced today. Are there any here who have a bill that wish to get them in today? Okay, Senator Higgins, we will wait for you. Senator Higgins, is that the last one? I understood you had two. All right, we will wait. Senator Beyer, is that volume enough back there now? It might take us a little while to get adjusted but please let us know if it is not coming back. Yes. Well whether you like it or not, we do want you to hear.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read LB 85-88 by title for the first time. See page 85 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: I want to remind you again of the little procedure after the inauguration ceremonies here this afternoon. There will be a reception line in the great hall, that we call it, between the rotunda and the entrance to the Capitol, honoring the new Governor. Senator Lundy, would you like to recess us until one-thirty this afternoon.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. Speaker, I move that we recess until one-thirty.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed nay. We are recessed.

Edited by L. M. Benischek
L. M. Benischek